

Mount Washington Observatory
Donor Privacy Policy

The Mount Washington Observatory (MWO) is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors. We do not share, rent, sell, lease or in any way provide our donor information to any third party. Use of donor information is limited to the internal purposes of MWO and only to further the organization activities.

We collect and store only the following information: name, organization, address, phone, email, and contribution and membership history. We do not store credit card or other payment information.

MWO uses your information to understand your needs, provide you with better service and inform you of MWO events and support/volunteer opportunities. We use the comments you offer to provide you with information requested, and we take seriously each recommendation as to how we might improve communication.

It is our desire to not send unwanted mail to our donors. Please contact us if you wish to be removed from our mailing list.
